13. GALLOTTI&RADICE

Shaped as much by gravity as by design, HalfPipe by Francesco Mada and David Lopez Guinecas for Gallotti&Radice transforms recycled glass powder into a monolithic seat. Cast rather than assembled, its sinuous curves and surprising lightness demonstrate how material experimentation can generate new forms.

14. FRIGERIO

Linda by Frigerio is shaped from two curved wooden planes that flow into the seat, backrest and footrest. The lounge chair pairs a sculptural silhouette with generous upholstery, balancing structural clarity with comfort.

15. MOLteni&C X CRISTIAN MOHADED

A leather band gives Corsetta by Cristian Mohaded for Molteni&C its distinctive silhouette. The design explores the tension between restraint and comfort through contrasting material and curvaceous volumes.

16. CECOTTI COLLEZIONI X DRAW STUDIO

Eugene by DRAW Studio for Ceccotti Collezioni revisits mid-century design through a solid wood frame, tracing its geometry around the upholstery. The result is a chair that balances structural rigour with comfort.
