WE ALWAYS LOOK TO ITALY TO SET THE STYLE AGENDA. EXPECT LUXURIOUS MATERIALS AND FINE CRAFTSMANSHIP FROM ITS MAKERS' GREATEST NEW IDEAS

SHAKE IT UP

From the brand that turned even the humble kitchen kettle into an admired design icon, Alessi's cocktail kits – designed by none other than 20th-century Memphis design pioneer Ettore Sottsass – are one for the at-home mixologist looking to up the stakes. We're opting for the models in PVD copper coating for a fresh update on the barman's go-to stainless steel. Solar Eclipse mixing kit, £274 (uk.alessi.com)

The statement Manto dining table can be customised with a retro-feel lazy Susan swivel top

BASE DESIRES

When it comes to dining, the Italians have spoken; any table without a showstopper base simply isn't worth having. Take Gallotti & Radice's Manto dining table featuring a curved base with a brass button. Manto dining table, £5,700, Gallotti & Radice (chaplins.co.uk)

MATERIAL WORLD

The candelabra pendant gets a thoroughly cool and modern makeover thanks to Porada. The brand's ability to marry wooden design with a chic aesthetic is second to none, and its recent Astra pendant pairs Canaletta walnut (admired for its dark veins) with opal glass spheres for a thoroughly modern approach to pride-of-place pendant lighting. Astra 2 pendant, from £2,320 (porada.it)

LIVING ROOM

Dramatic punctuation marks, like this oversized Portoro marble fireplace, are designed to catch the eye and ensure that the apartment isn't just about serene shades of white.

Fireplace by Félix Millory Architecture. Vases on top, Tom Dixon. BOB armchair by Christophe Delcourt. Metroquadro rug by cc-tapis. Coffee table, Minotti. Bolle ceiling light, Gallotti&Radice

OFFICE

This apartment is all about contrast – old and new, bold and serene – as demonstrated by the clean modern shelving with brass trims set against period features.

Aston chair by Minotti.
Air Desk W desk, Pinuccio Borgonovo for Gallotti&Radice.
Clark desk lamp by Lambert & Fils. Elbow spotlights, Tal. Divar wall lamp by Anour

LINE UP

An angular chair in a broken ikat block stripe is a happy companion to the geometric wallpaper. The chunky table in a vibrant red delivers a shock of colour and a touch of extra oomph.
