

The Stami Lounge chair created by Studiopepe for Gallotti&Radice takes its cue from the balanced and harmonious movement found in the natural world. The soft lines of the structure are reminders of the veins of leaves and the grafting points of stems. In black stained curved ash wood, with details in polished brass; seat padded with expanded polyurethane, removable cover in fabric or leather in catalogue colors, with down filler for the cushion.