

Champions of Design

Design Centre, Chelsea Harbour's reach has never been stronger, cementing its position as a vital design hub. It plays a pivotal role in the growth of the design industry, championing its community as a creative powerhouse

Design Centre, Chelsea Harbour is the home of design and decoration. Its mission is to champion creativity, entrepreneurship and business, representing the very best that design can offer. Today, the mix of luxury flagships, independent companies and some 600 international brands can be found, all at one address. Its extraordinary vitality can be credited to a strong sense of community, specialist expertise and commitment to creative excellence.

The international design destination helps people discover great design, and support those doing it best: from big name brands to emerging makers, as well as highlighting the skills they use to make exceptional pieces of lasting value. Its influence stretches far beyond its London base and is universally recognised as a magnet for interior designers, architects and specifiers working on residential and commercial projects across the globe. As Charlotte Rey, co-founder of Campbell-Rey, puts it: "It's a world of wonder."

Every showroom has been carefully selected for its impeccable credentials. From fabrics to furniture, kitchens to carpets, lighting to wallcoverings, and much more, it is an astonishing resource for those seeking inspiration for hotels, bars, restaurants, superyachts, private jets, beachside villas, country houses or city apartments, as well as design enthusiasts sourcing for their own homes. On every floor, visitors can discover great British brands as well as highly respected companies from further afield. All are celebrated for their creativity, superb craftsmanship and respect for artistry and innovation, with many boasting a proud heritage. Staying true to their values, they

'Ruban' chair, Pierre Frey, upholstered in 'Opio' fabric (I6616010), prussiana, Fadini Borghi at Pierre Frey. 'Selce' coffee table, Gallotti&Radice. 'Shanghai' carpet runner, Wendy Morrison (on wall). 'Backgammon' fabric (3013F/01), tuttifrutti, George Spencer Designs. 'Oxney Olive', 'Wild Plum Light' and 'Newby Green' paints, Sanderson